

The Linguist List

Fund Drive

Now in its 17th year, the LINGUIST List has never played a minimal role in modern linguistic research, communication and development. There are no selectional restrictions on our subscribers: we exist for you, and need your donations to continue.

If you've ever looked for JOBS, people or BOOKS;

If you've ever followed a DISCUSSION or been informed by an FYI;

In short, if you've ever been a LINGUIST
